Detectives Arrest School Maintenance Worker for Possession of Child Sexual Abuse Material

Detectives with the Central California Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Task Force and Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) have booked 24 year old Troy DeCarlo of Fresno into the Fresno County Jail for possession of Child Sexual Abuse Material (CSAM).

On Wednesday, detectives followed up on a CyberTip and contacted Troy DeCarlo at his workplace, which is the Selma Unified School District's Transportation Yard. Detectives arrested DeCarlo for possession of CSAM and his electronic devices were collected for further analysis.

At the time of this arrest, DeCarlo was working as a substitute maintenance worker / groundskeeper for the Selma Unified School District. He was hired in December 2025 and always worked under the supervision of at least one other employee. In DeCarlo's position, he had limited contact with students, however, if you have any information relatable to this case, please contact Detective Jovan Tamayo at (559) 761-3659. Tips may also be submitted to Valley Crime Stoppers at (559) 498-7867 or online at www.valleycrimestoppers.org You will remain anonymous and may be eligible for a cash reward.

*Central California ICAC is comprised of 68 federal, state and local law enforcement agencies spread throughout nine counties in the Central Valley. It is dedicated to protecting children online and investigating crimes committed against children, which are facilitated by the internet and computer usage.
